

A Guide to Our New Media Player

If you would like player to open in new window click this icon. If you have pop-up's blocked you will need to allow.

If any of these symbols are located in this area, you may click on them to start video (if available), audio, or a pdf (if available) of sermon notes, bulletins, etc. (you must have a pdf viewer installed on your machine). I

You may click here to subscribe to a podcast of our services or listen to the service on any internet enabled cell phone or smart phone.

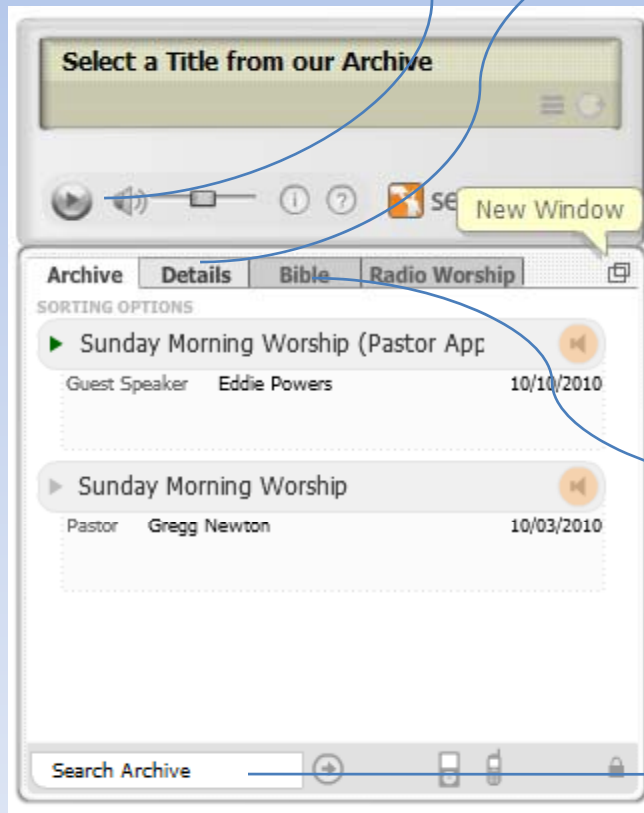

If video is available and you click to open the player, you may click on this icon to make the player full screen.

This area will control the location of video and audio when in play.

This clicked this tab will give detail of the service, speaker, etc.

This tab if clicked will allow you to look up any chapter or verse in the Bible while the service is being listen to or viewed.

You can click here to search for any service at any time